FALL OF GERMAN
CABINET LEADER
NOT UNEXPECTED

Late Foreign Minister Believed to Have Been Mainstay of Chancellor.

BERLIN, Nov. 15.—(By the Associated Press.)—The German cabinet headed by Chancellor Wirth has fallen. The ministerial resignations, filed last night, were precipitated by the decision of the Reichstag to participate in a coalition ministry, which included members of the German People's party. But the friends of Chancellor Wirth were not oblivious of the feeling that he had outlived his usefulness and now has become a victim of a policy of indecision and inactivity which found its culmination in the government's failure to make a practical arrangement with the Allied Reparations Commission during the course of its recent visit to Berlin.

Ever since the assassination of Foreign Minister Rathenau, the chancellor has been described as a man who apparently possessed no inspiration, no initiative. This attitude gave added weight to the assertion that the late foreign minister was Wirth's inspiration, and the force which urged him on.

With the passing of Doctor Rathenau, the chancellor visibly lost influence with his cabinet colleagues. As a result the support given his "policy of fulfillment" diminished day by day. He admitted the collapse of this policy last summer when he announced that the government's slogan had become "Bread first, then reparations."

Foreign criticism of these alleged weaknesses of the cabinet emanating from London as well as Berlin, during the last few days, contributed to undermining the chancellor's position, even in the ranks of the Coalition party. His belated espousal of the People's party as a necessary adjunct to the government definitely alienated the support he had been receiving from the Socialists.

Ever since the assassination of Doctor Rathenau, the chancellor has been described as a man who apparently possessed no inspiration, no initiative. This attitude gave added weight to the assertion that the late foreign minister was Wirth's inspiration, and the force which urged him on.

Passes Out Tip.

Harry Kasek, writing in the Pittsburgh Gazette, passes out a tip to Pitt and Tech football leaders who might be considered by West Virginia leaders. He says:

"We hereby humbly submit that Pitt or Carnegie Tech, or as King Lardner might put it, the both of them, arrange to play in New York next season. For apparently a team, unless it be Harvard, Princeton or Yale, or some extraordinary aggregation, like Little Centre College, has very little credit in the East unless it presents its wares before a New York crowd. New York colleges and fans are still raving about the movie game put on by West Virginia and Lafayette at the Polo Grounds and also about the scoreless battle between Penn State and Syracuse the week before. Wonder what they'd do and say if they saw Pitt play at its very best, or Carnegie Tech steamrolling Columbia at Fordham or Rutgers or some such other team?"

"It's the same in football as in anything else. If one has anything to sell or show, the wise card is to take it to New York. New York worships a winner—and anything that goes over in New York carries a certain guarantee everywhere else. Along these lines we have in mind the case of Harry Greb. Pitt's boxing fans knew the true caliber of Greb three years before he ever got a real tumble in the East. Yet it was not until he had fought in Madison Square Garden a few times that Easterners were prone to admit his worth and then they went crazy about him. For they had just 'discovered' him."

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Erich Ragenhauer, champion of Germany, will meet Welker Cochran of San Francisco in the matinee game of the International 18.2 ball billiard tournament this afternoon. Both players lost their first games. Tonight two winners in the initial contests—Jake Schaefer of the United States, present champion and Roger Conti, champion of France—will meet.

Cochran won from Conti, 500 to 376, yesterday evening, and Willie Hoppe, former world's champion, defeated Edouard Horemans, Belgian champion, 500 to 177, in the evening contest.

upon Churchill's famous novel of the same name.

Committee Meets

A committee on cemetery improvement and care of the Fairview cemetery met last night in the I. O. O. F. and made provisions for the hiring of a permanent and full time caretaker. The work will be financed, it is said, by subscriptions and general contributions.

Prayer Meeting Night

Members of the various local churches will meet tonight in their respective churches for worship in accordance with the usual mid-weekly prayer meeting service. It is expected that these meetings will be well attended as special preparation is being made for a series of meetings to open sometime in December.

ONLY ONE GAME EACH YEAR URGED AT HARVARD

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 15.—They are talking of limiting inter-collegiate football games at Harvard to a single annual contest with Yale.

In two separate inter-class debates, freshmen against sophomores and juniors against seniors, the affirmative has prevailed on the proposition:

"Resolved that Harvard should limit inter-collegiate football games to the annual contest with Yale, supplementing this with the Oxford system of intra-mural contests."

The debates will be resumed next week.

LAFAYETTE CAPTAIN TO SEE GAME AS SPECTATOR

EASTON, Pa., Nov. 15.—Frank ("Dutch") Schwab, captain of the Lafayette College football eleven and choice of many experts for all-American guard last season, plans to see his first college football game as a spectator on Saturday when Yale meets Princeton. Schwab has taken part in every one of Lafayette's football games since he entered college in 1919 and never before had had the opportunity to watch a game. Lafayette has an open date this week end.

NEW ADDITION TO SCHOOL FINISHED

Rivesville High School Annex
 Will Be Opened for Use Monday.

The contractor in charge of the work on the Rivesville High School annex has notified I. A. Barnes, county superintendent of schools, that work on the building will be completed this week and that the rooms will be ready for use next Monday.

Four classrooms, a large gymnasium, showers and toilets are included in the annex and will fill a long list of the school's needs. The present building was badly crowded and the four additional rooms will greatly reduce the congestion in the classroom. The gym will improve athletic conditions for the school and will make it possible to teach physical education as required by the state law. The showers and new toilets will improve the sanitary conditions around the building.

FIVE MEN JAILED FOR ALCOHOL PARTY

City police rudely interrupted a denatured alcohol party being held by five men at the spring on the hill side near the Kiser Bros. lumber yard yesterday afternoon, and as a result Mayor W. W. Conaway had five prisoners before the bar of justice in police court this morning.

Chief of Police L. D. Sneider testified that only one member of the party had indulged in excess but that the party was just getting under way where the officers arrived and that all the others had enjoyed at least a drink or two. The quintet said they bought the alcohol from an East Side garage.

The men were listed on the docket as Thomas Ryan, W. P. Morris, William Carey, Michael Cain and William Sider. They all entered pleas of guilty to charges of being intoxicated and drew fines of $5 and costs each. As there was not $5 in the entire bunch they were all sent to jail for five days.

Mayor Conaway has declared that the city will not feed and house a bunch of loafers this year and men committing petty crimes with the intention of getting five to ten days in the city jail and then doing the same thing over again are going to get a surprise.

Mayor Conaway says that when the cold weather sets in every one sentenced to jail will be compelled to work on the streets or at some other kind of work being done by the city. It is thought that this action will drive a number of the undesirable out of the city as they do not like to work.

82 CANDIDATES OUT FOR UNIVERSITY RIFLE TEAM

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Nov. 15.—Eighty-two candidates have reported for the West Virginia University rifle team, Captain Marian Mumma announced today. Eight veterans from 1922-23 squad were included in the number. From the remaining seventy-four candidates, the permanent squad of twenty-eight men, the schedule for the team, in addition to the regular competition in the inter-collegiate rifle league, includes matches with Drexel Institute, DePaul University, University of Maine, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and Princeton.

NO TRACE FOUND TODAY OF MORGANTOWN MAN

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Nov. 15.—Search for the body of R. W. Ross, 45 years old, of this city, who left his home yesterday afternoon to go swimming and who has not returned, was continued in the Monongahela River today by police officials and Boy Scout life guards.

Ross, who was a Scotchman and fond of swimming in cold weather, was seen at the municipal bathing beach yesterday afternoon and his clothes were found in the bath house there. No one had seen him in swimming, however, and government employees at the lock directly across from the beach said they were confident he had not gone swimming there because their attention would have been caught by such an unusual incident.

8250 REWARD OFFERED.
 S. T. Williams, president of the Lumberport District board of education in Harrison County, last night offered a reward of $250 for any information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who set fire to the school building in that city early Sunday morning.

This Date in History

Life and Character Reading
 NOVEMBER 15

The governing sign of this date is Scorpio, the governing planet is Mars, and the birthstone is a topaz. The astral colors are golden brown and black.

Children born on this date are very dominating and supercilious. Moral and spiritual development in a child of this date is going to be a task which will take a good deal of time and patience. It will come from a natural law the hardest one and the only one. "As a man sows, so shall he also reap."

The largest possible range should be given these children, in education. They are usually fond of animals but sometimes become extremely cruel when their commands are not obeyed. They should be led into a close intimacy with these dumb creatures as soon as they are old enough to notice, by means of pictures and a personal acquaintance.

If you wish to send your child to a private school, and are not sure of the best kind, use the Want Ads. They will settle your needs.

IMPORTANT NOTICE
 The West Virginian will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any advertisement ordered for more than one time.

All cancellation orders on contract and until for bid orders must be in writing addressed to the Want-Ad Department. This is for your protection.

The Market Place

Under cool awnings, in shadowed doorways, or in the broad sunlight or hot cobblestones, sit those who sell. Those who buy must come from afar, must spend much time in finding their needs in bargaining, haggling, trading.

This is the East.

In the West we have something to sell or we have an urgent need. A Want Ad does all the work for us. It brings to us buyers. It brings us to buyers. It leads us to the thing we want.
